N 239	Continued From page 1 This Rule is not met as evidenced by: Based on interview and record review, the provider did not ensure 1 of 2 employees reviewed obtained all department approved training as required. Caregiver B did not have training in first aid and choking within 90 days after starting employment. Caregiver B, who had responsibilities that would create exposure to blood, body fluids or other moist body substances, did not have training in standard precautions prior to assuming these duties. Findings include: On 06/03/2026, Surveyor conducted a review of 2 employees to verify compliance with department approved training requirements. Surveyor requested training records from Manager A for Caregiver B. First Aid and Choking The record for Caregiver B, hired 01/28/2026, did not contain evidence of training or evidence of meeting an exemption for first aid and choking. On 06/10/2026, at approximately 2:00 p.m., Surveyor interviewed Manager A. Manager A confirmed the provider did not have evidence Caregiver B completed or met an exemption for first aid and choking training. Manager A told Surveyor, s/he thought Caregiver B received training as an EMT (emergency medical technician), but when s/he requested the documentation, Caregiver B told Manager A s/he did not complete the training.
